Samuel Todd Harris - MY GENIUS

My Life's Work - what I'm here to do - Gene Key 38

You are one of the great warriors of the world, and you need to find your ultimate life battle. Your battle goes beyond your own sense of self. It is about serving a higher code and setting a standard of honour for the inspiration of everyone else. If this sounds like a tall order, then you may have to dig deeper within yourself to find what you are really capable of. With the Gift of Perseverance, you are not here to sit on the sidelines of life. You are here to fight for what you believe in, and to make a stand against the forces that attempt to undermine the individual. However, you are not an anarchist. Your role is not to tear down what others have built. You are here to challenge anything that takes away an individual's freedom and makes them less than they could be. You are a force for justice in the world, so you had better pull yourself into the fray if you are not there already!

My Evolution - what I'm here to learn - Gene Key 39

Your greatest challenge in life is to overcome the human tendency to take everything personally. At an emotional level, you can be very volatile if you are not fully engaged in projects that command your full attention and effort. There is danger for you to become idle — and even more if you make compromises that do not allow your spirit enough room to breathe. If you are fulfilled by your Life's Work, you will not have any energy left over to worry about what others think of you. You need to go your own way in life without having to defend your position. At the same time, you need to be respectful of the feelings of others.

My Radiance - what keeps me healthy - Gene Key 57

Your radiance really increases the more deeply you trust the power of your intuition. For you, intuition is such a physical process that it is like a charge that either floods or drains your health. Decisions made from deep within your belly will energise you and fill you with vitality, whereas decisions made mentally and that you procrastinate over will inevitably drain you. Your body is a highly accurate barometer of your environment. It gives you continual readings about where you are supposed to be, when you are supposed to leave, whom you can trust, and whom you should not trust. Everything about your life is reflected within the cells of your body, and particularly through your belly. If your body falls ill, you are either moving through a great change or you have succumbed to inner doubts. Above all else, you must trust in what your body tells you, all the time.

My Purpose - what deeply fulfils me - Gene Key 51

The difference between the Life's Work and Life's Purpose is the difference between what you do and what you are. With the 51st Gift as your Purpose, it is not so important what you do in life. The only thing that matters is the spirit in which you live. You are an awakening force in the world. Because you cannot fit in anywhere, you must cut a groove for yourself in life, and let others stand back in awe. You cannot hide from the world, but are here to make a noise that will disturb others from their tight, fear-based patterns. Of course, in order to bring such a potent gift into the world, you must first face down your own inner demons — the fear that you will always be an outsider and that no one can truly understand you. In living your life on the creative cutting edge, these fears will be swept aside as the illusions that they are, and for the first time, you will be understood, recognised, and welcomed in the world as the breath of fresh air that you are.
